

PRESS RELEASE
2009 HISTORIC NATIONAL ROAD
YARD SALE DAYS

US 40, America's First Interstate

There will be a yard sale from Baltimore, MD to St. Louis, MO from May 27 – May 31, 2008. This will be the 6th year for the Historic National Road Yard Sale. The states of Maryland, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois will join forces to provide people with the opportunity to display their bargains and treasures for 824 miles from DAWN to DUSK.

The Historic National Road Yard Sale has become an annual event. In 2009 the Historic National Road Yard Sale will celebrate its 5th anniversary. Emanated in Dublin Indiana - the inception of the Historic National Road Yard Sale Days. Individuals have now begun making vacation plans to travel America's longest continuous yard sale. PLEASE MARK YOUR CALENDARS FOR THE FIRST WEDNESDAY AFTER MEMORIAL DAY EACH YEAR! In 2010, plan on another year of roadside bargains from June 2 – June 6.

Antiques, furniture, fresh garden produce, glassware, plus other collectibles will be available. Individuals will also have the opportunity to traverse America's first interstate, sample regional foods, feel the pulse of the small towns, interact with families, and simply enjoy the "thrill of the hunt"!

All major television stations, national radio, the National AP wire services, CNN, Indiana News Network, Home & Away Magazine, Ohio Magazine, Maryland Life, Country Living, Midwest Living, and Southern Living have represented the media in the past. In 2007 MSNBC, most Indiana media, Country Home, The Washington Post, and other state media joined forces to help promote the Historic National Road Yard Sale.

PLEASE MARK YOUR CALENDARS FOR THE FIRST WEDNESDAY AFTER MEMORIAL DAY EACH YEAR!

2010 – June 2 – June 6

2011 – May 25 – May 29

2012 – May 30 – June 3

2013 – May 29 – June 2

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Please contact coordinator Patricia McDaniel at 765-478-4809

or email at info@oldstorefrontantiques.com

Visit the website at www.oldstorefrontantiques.com

PS: The Historic National Road Yard Sale Days have always been outstanding!

Please consider reading the attached PR articles! Thanks so much